

Victoria Power and Sail Squadron has created this privacy notice to demonstrate our firm commitment to internet privacy. The following discloses our policies concerning the gathering and sharing of information through this website. In brief, our policies are:

- We monitor general trends in the use of our website but never track individual visitors;
- We do not collect information concerning individual visitors unless that information is voluntarily disclosed, for example by requesting response from e-mail addresses within the site; and
- We do not share the information voluntarily disclosed to us with any other organization; at any time. Users who have signed up for a specific service can have their names removed from the relevant mailing list.